DAY 2 ○ Amalfi, Italy

Meet your English-speaking driver/tour guide and private vehicle on a half-day trip (6 hours) along the stunning Amalfi Coast, including Amalfi and Ravello. Amalfi Drive is Italy's most romantic drive, with a road that runs along the edge of rocky cliffs that pour into the sea. Amalfi is the largest city on the coast, with its main attraction being the 10th century Duomo in front of a beautifully colored 13th century facade. The charming village of Ravello is said to have the best views along the coast that you can enjoy from the beautiful Villa Rufolo.

DAY 5 ○ Naples, Italy

Your English-speaking driver will be waiting for you this morning to take you to one of the most fascinating archaeological sites of Pompeii, where you will meet an expert local tour guide. The vast and diverse ruins of Pompeii, once a wealthy town, now offers us a rich history of life during the Roman Empire. There are theaters, thermal baths, shops and luxury residences, many of which are incredibly well preserved. From Pompeii, head to Naples, one of the oldest cities in the world, and its current urban structure preserves elements of its long and vibrant history. Founded by the ancient Greeks as "Νεάπολις", Neápolis (New City) played an important role in Magna Graecia and later as part of the Roman Republic in the central province of the Empire. The city has seen a lot of civilizations come and go, each one leaves its mark. You will have free time for lunch here, before meeting your local representative for your train trip to Rome.

Upon arrival at Rome Termini Station, you will be greeted at the train gate and transferred to your hotel a short distance privately.
